

Frayer Model: Complexity

What does complexity mean?

Complexity is something that is made up of many different interacting components or parts, and may be difficult to understand or do.

What are the key characteristics of complexity?

- made up of many different interacting components or parts
- may be difficult to do or
- may be difficult to understand

COMPLEXITY

What are examples of the concept?

What are non-examples of the concept?

