

Human-Made Structures of Land

Read and learn about one of the following human-made structures of land.

How is meaning conveyed through this human-made structure?

*What stories are shared through this structure?
How can we determine what was important to the creators?*

petroglyph image carved or scratched into stone	Writing-on-Stone/ Áísínai’pi images Cultural Heritage - Writing-on-Stone Peterborough Petroglyphs/ Kinoomaagewaabkong
pictograph painting on stone	The Rock Art of Western Canada Pictographs and Petroglyphs (Canadian Encyclopedia) Pimachiowin Aki
Inuksuit	Do you know what an inukshuk is? (CBC Kids) Let’s Talk About Inuksuit
lobstick	What is a lobstick? My First Métis Lobstick by Leah Marie Dorion (book)
totem poles	3 Cool Facts About Totem Poles (CBC Kids video) 13 totally terrific totem pole facts (CBC Kids) Totem Poles (PBS video) Totem Pole (Canadian Encyclopedia)
pyramids	Egyptian Pyramids (History Channel-video & text) The Evolution of Ancient Egypt’s Pyramids (video) Pyramids in Latin America (History Channel-video&text)

