

Grade Ten
10 – 1, 10 – 2

General Sites

- Globalization 101
Provides an excellent background and introduction to the Unit. This resource promotes a greater understanding of globalization. The home page helps define what globalization is, it provides related news links on either side of the page. Click on Issue Briefs which helps explain the fundamental issues and current controversies related to globalization.

1.1 Acknowledge and appreciate the existence of alternative viewpoints in a globalizing world.

- Globalization: What Does It mean For Me?
This WebQuest is designed from an Australian viewpoint, but could easily be adapted to a Canadian one. It asks students to research, through the links provided, how Globalization effects them, Australia, and the world. It provides resources for the students to complete after their research.
- Fact Sheet
Up-to-date statistical data on every country in the world. Current to three days. Excellent for demographic comparisons of all kinds.
- Mercer Report
Satirical video clips of Mercer's best moments.

1.2 Appreciate why peoples in Canada and other locations strive to promote their cultures, languages and identities in a globalizing world.

- Vancouver 2010
The latest in preparations and organization for the Olympics Games. Focus on cultural aspects.
- E. Pauline Johnson: Native Identity
Contains an excellent and readable biography of the Poet Pauline Johnson and her struggle to maintain her identity.

1.3 Appreciate how the forces of globalization shape, and are shaped by, identities and cultures.

- An Ecological Footprint Quiz
Up-to-date statistical data on every country in the world. Current to three days. Excellent for demographic comparisons of all kinds.
- Supreme Court of Canada
The Right Honorable Beverley McLachlin, gives her view point on globalization, Identity and Citizenship. <http://www.scc-csc.gc.ca/court-cour/ju/spe-dis/bm04-10-26-eng.asp>
- Hidden Europe
Interesting site showcasing isolated communities of various types nestled within larger European nations.
- Shooting an Elephant

Recounting his story of shooting an elephant in British Burma during the colonial era, Orwell provides insight into the real nature of imperialism.

1.4 Explore ways in which individuals and collectives express identities.

- Hidden Europe
Interesting site showcasing isolated communities of various types nestled within larger European nations.
- Supreme Court of Canada
The Right Honorable Beverley McLachlin, gives her view point on globalization, Identity and Citizenship.

1.5 Explore understandings and dimensions of globalization.

- Yale Global Online
This website gives a historical view on where globalization has come from. It has two flash media presentations that shows globalization in a historical view.
- Greenpeace
With the preservation of Canadian natural heritage as its primary goal, this focuses on the actions Greenpeace has taken and the impact on Canada.

1.6 Examine the impact of media and communications technology on diversity.

- Yale Global Online
This website has a flash presentation on the history of television and its impact globally.
- The Global Arcade
An interactive site for students to learn about the impact globalization on various countries as well as how government decisions affect other nations.
- E. Pauline Johnson: Native Identity
Contains an excellent and readable biography of the Poet Pauline Johnson and her struggle to maintain her identity.

1.7 Analyze opportunities presented by globalization to identities and cultures.

- Yale Global Online
This website has a flash presentation on the history of television and its impact globally.
- The Global Arcade
An interactive site for students to learn about the impact globalization on various countries as well as how government decisions affect other nations.
- E. Pauline Johnson: Native Identity
Contains an excellent and readable biography of the poet Pauline Johnson and her struggle to maintain her identity.
- Mercer Report
Satirical video clips of Mercer's best moments.
- Self-Employed Women's Association

Numerous examples of Indian women as self employed success stories. moments.

1.8 Examine challenges presented by globalization to identities and cultures.

- Yale Global Online
This website has a flash presentation on the history of television and its impact globally.
- E. Pauline Johnson: Native Identity
Contains an excellent and readable biography of the Poet Pauline Johnson and her struggle to maintain her identity.
- Independent Media Center
Independent media sources explore a worldwide perspective allowing students to compare and analyze from differing viewpoints.
- Oxfam
Information on Canada 's various efforts overseas and give chance to assess their efficacy.
- Rwanda After the Genocide
The conflict in Rwanda with viewpoints from both sides.
- UNESCO
Excellent on a variety of topics including language, cultural identity etc.
- Biography.com
Promotes the topics on the television show so staying aware is an asset.

2.7 Explore the foundations of historical globalization (rise of capitalism, industrialization, imperialism, Eurocentrism)

- Bridging World History
This site contains a number of video's. Video number 19 explains how the industrial revolution was a global process, not just a European or American story.
- The Global Arcade
An interactive site for students to learn about the impact globalization on various countries as well as how government decisions affect other nations.

2.9 Examine multiple perspectives on the political, economic and social impacts of historical globalization and imperialism.

- Bridging World History
This site has a number of video's. Video number 15 addresses the question: What is globalization and when did it begin?

3.8 Evaluate actions and policies associated with globalization that impact the environment.

- Earth Trends- Environmental Information
This website looks at risks and opportunities of globalization and the sustainability of the environment. The site includes a number of links and case studies.

3.9 Analyze multiple perspectives on sustainability and prosperity in a globalizing world.

- Globalization: A Solution for Some
This website deals with the pros and cons of globalization in regards to economies and trade.

4.2 Recognize and appreciate the importance of human rights in determining quality of life.

- Economic Globalization and Human Rights- Amnesty International
This site comes from Amnesty international and it deals with the world's economy and human rights and how they are connected. It gives specific case study examples.

4.6 Analyze impacts of globalization on women.

- Women and the Economy
Canadian website that deals with globalization, specifically, clothing, food and migration. The site also provides an in depth look at women and globalization, a glossary of terms and an online globalization quiz.